ABOUT Plays and Players By BIDE DUDLEY

HR old A. H. Woods meldramas aren't through it seems by a whole fot. C. P. rewford writes from London that has staged "Neille, the Beautiful Cleak Model" in England and that II proving a very lucrative invest-Mr. Woods originally presented the play, by Owen Davis, th New York in 1906. Before it left the city it had been shown at nine thentree, namely, the American, Metropolts, Star, West End, Third Avenue People's, Windsor, Thatia and Murray Hill. Clara Joel, now leading woman with John Mason in "Common Clay," was the original Nellie well has the melodrama done for Mr. Crawford that he to now in negoof "Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl." "The Great Express Robbery" and "The Queen of the White Slaves" It has been predicted that some day the Woods melodramas will be done again in America. Therefore, Mr. Crawford's activities are being watched with much interest on this side of the Atlantic.

PLAYWRIGHTS ELECT.

The Playwrights' Club has elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Robert Stodart; Vice President, Mrs. Maravene Thompson; Corresponding Secretary, Thompson; Corresponding Secretary, Leo Seidman; Recording Secretary, George M. Nelson; Treasurer, J. Van Velsor Smith, and Publicity Representatives. Matthew White jr. and Harry King Tootle. E. F. Hague, Gustave Blum and Leonidas Westervelt are to constitute the Play Committee. Six plays by members of the club are scheduled for production this season.

MISS FERGUSON'S CAST.

Klaw & Erlanger announce the completion of Elsie Ferguson's company, which will be seen in "Miss New York." The cast includes Lee Baker, Mrs. Jacques Martin, William Holden, Kitty Brown, George Backus, Ella Rock, Leslie Austen, Corrine Barker, Victor Benoit and Douglas Paterson. The piay will first be staged at the Apollo, Atlantic City, Oct. 9.

"THE PERFECT ACTRESS."

"THE PERFECT ACTRESS."

The perfect actress is not with an yet, but over at the Hippodrome they have decided what she should be like. Just as the sporting editor picks his all-American baseball team, so have they picked the composites of the perfect actress at the Hip. A contest was held last week among the chorus girls for the best idea of such an actress and Peg Raymond won it, her entry coming nearest the consensus of opinion. Miss Raymond will receive a ticket to the World's Series baseball games as a prize. Her idea as to how the perfect actress should be made up follows: Legs of Anna Pavlowa, body of Charlotte, eyes of Jane Cowl, hands of Elsie Ferguson, mouth of Billie Burke, hair of Margot Kelly, neck of Mary Garden, nose of Martha Hedman, chin of Mae Marsh, shoulders of Dixle Gerard and feet of Ann Pennington.

BY WAY OF DIVERSION.

"We're fixin' for a social at the urch next Monday night," said rs. St McGuggin. "Won't you come d eat a bite? Twill be a mighty Mrs. Si McGuggin. "Won't you come and eat a bite? Twill be a mighty nice affair; admission just a dime! We guarantee that all who come will have a lovely time. We'll have some fine ice cream to sell, and peanuts, popcorn, too, and sausage for the hungry, and most likely chicken stew. The cash we get will go to clothe the preacher out complete. Of late he's kicked because his pants are wore out in the seat. We're 'rangin' for a programme. Lucy Lee is booked to sing a song called 'Till We Meet Again,' and little Archie King will say a speech called 'Dyin' Child: Say a speech called 'Dyin' Child: Mice workin' on it new. I'm down to elecute a piece memed Mrs. Murphy's Cow.' Course, Glas had to kick a but because i'm takin' a part, but he knows mighty well I've learned the clocultin' art. This 'Mrs. Murphy's Cow'. I'm learned the clocultin' art. This 'Ares. Murphy's Cow' is fine. It's quite a high-toned thing. They say 'twas wrote by Shakespeare just before they crowned him king. Now, I don't care, 'maid Mrs. Bi, a firm look on her face, 'what Silas thinks or what he ears. That man ain't in the case. My 'Mrs. Murphy's Cow.' I'll bet, will hold 'em in a trance. Come down and head of the more out pants."

Lydia Dickson writes us to take exception of John V. Mellon's state hent, printed here, to the down will suptained the core that all who come will have some in the states. The hard man has been engaged for a role in 'King, Queen, Jack'.

'Rio Grande'' will begin its season early in October at the Hollis Street the lots of the immers. Murphy's Cow' is fine. It's quite a high-toned thing. They say 'twas wrote by Shakespeare just before they crowned him king. Now, I don't care, 'maid Mrs. Bi, a firm look on her face, 'what Silas thinks or what he easy. That man ain't in the case. My 'Mrs. Murphy's Cow'. Till bet, will hold 'em in a trance. Come down and staged by Willard Mack.

Salved him the forthcoming Stage Childrens Fund Adinance of the Adirondacks and will be alternating Ersake in specific prom the forthcoming its

"'S'MATTER, POP!

SOME BUDDY

SAYS YER THEP

DON'T WORK

Does So

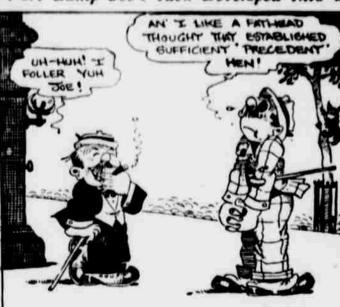

the singlify in the British provinces HENRY HASENPFEFFER

Judging From the Looks of His Port Lamp Joe's Idea Developed Into a "Hit!"

By Bud Counihan

FLOOEY AND AXEL

7,300 to 1 Axel Doesn't Walk to N. Y. From K. C.!

By Vic

ROSE ALIVE AND KICKING.

ROSE ALIVE AND KICKING. Dr. Ida C. Nahm has been selected as manager of the forthcoming Stage exception to John V. Melton's state-Children's Fund bazaar.

THE EVENING WORLD'S

COUSIN ELEANOR'S "KLUB KOLUMN"

Questions and Answers.

A. Yes, I wish you would, it will please me. Q. May we send pictures of ourselves to you? A. Do by all meens. I already have a little-llery of members and am always gied to gild to it.

Your klub. I would like to know if my little stater, age 7, and my two brothers, ages 4 and 2 may also bin?

A Certainly they may. The more the merries Yours will be the second family of six, all of whom are members. I am very pleased with you Q When I was critting out a courson the criseon slipped and tore the coupon in half. If I waste it may I send it in?

A Yes, you may.

Kiddie Klub Korner

CONDUCTED BY ELEANOR SCHORER

MRS. RUNNER RABBIT TAUGHT THEM TO STAY QUITE STILL

THOSE GIRLS!

A PROPERTY AND A PROPERTY AND ADDRESS.

By Jack Callahan.

How to Join the Klub

E VERY widdle who joins The Evening World's Kiddle Klub will receive a silver gray pin like the one here shown. gray pin like the one here shown.

To become a member clip out six pin compons like the one below, printed in the Klub Korner Mondays, Wednesdays and Priduces. The congous may start at any number When you have six congous unustant at any number when you have six congous numbered in rotation, like 61 dg. 40, 44 db. 60, send them to the Kiddle Klub, Evening World, No. 63 Park Row. New York City, with a note in which you must state—

YOUR NAME.

YOUR ADDRESS. You must be execul to state these three things, as no application will be CONSIDERED unless this information is complete.

If your note and compose meet the above conditions, upon receipt of them we will mail you your pin and a certificate of membership. Age limit fifteen wars. The Kinib is open to all children, no matter where they live.

PIN COUPON "KIDDIE KLUB"

61

WHEN BEDTIME COMES

"The Rabbits' Schooling."

Copyright, 1916, by The Press Publishing Co.
The New York Evening World.)

MRS. RUNNER RABBIT had some fine little children. They were such tiny little bits of fuzz, that Runner Rabbit didn't be seen as the showed them how to brush their ears with their claws. She taught them how to thump-thump on the ground—which is the rabbit's way of signaling or telephoning to each other that danger is near, or that good their that danger is near, or that good their that danger is near, or that good ke them at all.

But Mrs. Runner Babbit loved them!

She knew that they were going to be handsome rabbits some day! And she watched over them, and taught then the lessons all rabbits must learn. She taught them to stay quite still in their nest of leaves when she went out hund

THE KIDDIE KLUB'S SEPT. PICTURE CONTEST.

Subject—The Animal You'd Like Best For a Pet. Subject—The Animal Fould Like Best For a Fet.

The Evening World will give five one-dollar awards for pictures drawn this month by KIDDIE KLUB members only. One dollar each for the best picture drawn by a member not over seven years old, eight to nine years old ten to eleven, twelve to thirtoen, fourteen to fifteen years old—five classes in all. Pictures must be received not later than Sept. 29, and must illustrate the idea suggested above. Beneath your picture you must write your name, address, age and your membership certificate number. Address KIDDIE KLUB PICTURE CONTEST, Evening World, No. 83 Park Row, New York City.

however, that Runner Rabbit didn't things to eat are close at hand.

Ne them at all.

And lastly Mrs. Runner taught her

And lastly Mrs. Runner taught her young that water which had touched the ground is not fit for a rabbit to irink. They must have nothing but resh dew drops on the briers.
"And now children," said Mrs. Runner to her brood, rubbing her hiskers against one after the other, you may go out into the his world.

nest of leaves when she went out hunsing for food. She covered them ove with long grass and warned them the they mustn't move, for the wood were full of dangers they still knew nothing about.

Then Mrs. Runner taught them how to stay perfectly still like a statue when an animal appeared and give the stony stare which is one of the tricks.

PT. PICTURE CONTEST.

The deliar awards for pictures drawn this life. One dollar each for the best picture years old, eight to nine years old. each to fifteen years old, eight to nine years old. and rubbed his fine children who had once been such horrid little bits of fuzz.

Hack they all went to Mrs. Runner, and as Runner told her how well she had brought up the children from little bits of fuzz. Mrs. Runner thought to herself, "Well, it takes mother rabbit to see beforehan what her children will be like."

FROM KIDDIES

Goldenrod Gold.

By Mary Graham Bomer

Kiddie Klub Garden, Designed by AGNES KELLY, Age Seven, No. 340 Bay